FOREWORD BY THE DEAN

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.
Salam Sejahtera and Greetings to All.

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2nd (postgraduate) International Conference on Humanities 2019 (ICH 2019) and to Universiti Sains Malaysia!

It is well known that the strategic priority of School of Humanities has always been providing our postgraduate students with rich research environments and encouraging them to participate vitally in the intellectual enquiry both at the university and outside it.

Since its initiation in 2016, the International Conference on Humanities (ICH) has yielded a valuable platform for postgraduate students to be exposed to the most recent researches in sustainability of humanities. Today, through this conference, it is evident that a developing corpus of scientific contributions is being created in a variety of disciplines by a promising gathering of postgraduate students, young scholars, academics, and researchers from arts, humanities, sciences and social sciences. Definitely, the significance of this academic corpus in the realm of epistemology is undeniable.

Making this event a continuous reality is due mainly to the industrious efforts of Postgraduate Students' Club of the School of Humanities, Universiti Sains Malaysia. So, I would like to congratulate and thank them. I also extend my special thanks and gratitude to the Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Sains Malaysia, Professor Dr. Faisal Rafiq Mahamad Adikan, for his continuous support to the School of Humanities.

I wish you all a stimulating conference and a fascinating experience here, with us, in Penang.

PROFESSOR DR. NARIMAH SAMAT
DEAN, SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES, UNIVERSITI SAINS MALAYSIA
